

DAVID HORNE

In 2018, Coach David exited his full-time soccer career after spending 8 seasons as the Director of Operations for the Louisville men's soccer program. David joined the Cardinals' staff after serving as the General Manager of the Louisville Lightning. David is a founding member of the professional indoor soccer team and was responsible for marketing the team, sponsorship sales, ticket sales, game day operations and community and media relations.

A native of Louisville, David played college soccer for Centre College in Danville, Ky. A two-time captain, he was Centre's first NSCAA/adidas Academic All-American and the 2006 Centre College Male Athlete of the Year. Prior to joining the Lightning, David served as an assistant coach at his alma mater and played professionally outdoors for the Cincinnati Kings of the USL II and indoor for the Cincinnati Kings of the PASL. David holds his USSF "B" License.

