

DILLON NEEL

Dillon Neel is a Louisville Native who has just wrapped up his college soccer career. Starting his soccer career at Mockingbird, Dillon has played for Javanon and United. He attended Male High School and played five years at Franklin College helping the team reach its first tournament appearance in eight years. Dillon has previously helped coach at Ramsey Middle School and has helped at Top Soccer, a program which helps kids with disabilities have opportunities in the sport. Dillon is currently working on his D license and hopes to continue being around the sport.

