

KEITH O'LOANE

Keith grew up playing soccer in Louisville. He played High School soccer for St. Xavier where he went undefeated city champions in 1982-1983. He was also selected to the Honorable Mention All-State in 1985. He then played collegiately at the University of Dayton where he was selected to the MCC Tournament All Tournament Team in 1989. Keith had an expansive professional career playing for Lexington Bandits Professional (USISL) in 1993, Louisville Thoroughbreds Professional (USISL) in 1994, Louisville Lightning 2011-2012 (PASL) and the River City Legends (PASL) in 2012-2013.

Keith began coaching at Bellarmine University as the Women's Assistant Coach and the Men's Goalkeeper Coach from 1991-1994. He then coached at LSA from 1998-2002, then transitioned to Javanon and coached for a year. He was Ballard High School Men's Assistant and Goalkeeper Coach from 2009-2011, they were Regional Finalists in 2009, 2010, and 2011. Keith was the Male High School Goalkeeper coach in 2012-2013. He was the head coach for the PASL Premier River City Saints (Semi-Professional) 2013-2014 where they were ranked 3rd in the nation. He also coached at LSC from 2013-2016 then moved to Mockingbird (previously KFJ) where he coached from 2016 until his family moved to Hawaii in 2020. He coached at Leahi Soccer Club in Hawaii and now has moved back to Louisville and joined Mockingbird again. Keith also has his USSF D Coaching License.

