

DON LAGUERRE

Don Andrax Laguerre is from Haiti. He moved to Louisville one year ago with his wife. He currently works as an Education manager for chances for children, a non profit organization that helps kids and families in Haiti. Don is currently playing for a semi-professional UPSL team. Prior to moving to America, he played professional soccer in Haiti. Don joined Mockingbird this past winter. As a coach, Don will help develop the skills of individual players and build a winning team.

