

EDWIN NGAIZA

Coach Edwin is originally from Dar-es-Salaam, Tanzania. He moved to Pretoria, South Africa as a teenager where he went to High School and also played in the youth systems of a local professional team, Tuks Football Club. While in South Africa Coach Edwin got an opportunity to come to the United States on a soccer scholarship. He played for four years at Marian University in Indianapolis, IN. During his time at Marian, Edwin was a member of the MCC/CL Conference Tournament championship team in 2005-2006, and he was also chosen as a member of the MCC/CL All conference team in 2005. During Summer breaks in college, Coach Edwin would help organize pickup games. One of Edwin's good friends he knew through the pickup games encouraged him to get into coaching. He began assisting various youth teams at Westside United for two years after graduating from college. He then relocated to Louisville, KY and has been with KFJ (now Mockingbird Valley Premier). He also holds his Grassroots Coaching Course licenses as well as his USSF "D" Coaching license.

