

KEVIN AKA

Coach Kevin is originally from Paris, France, where he played for a U16 & U19 semi-professional club in Belgium during high school. He came to the United States where he played four years of college soccer at the NAIA Division II level. His college soccer experience was highlighted by a trip to the National tournament, an experience he'll never forget.

During his time as a collegiate athlete, he helped with many youth camps and gave individual technical lessons. Coach Kevin holds his USSF D license and is currently a club soccer coach with Mockingbird Valley Premier. Outside of soccer, he and his wife enjoy spending time with their two daughters.

