

NICK ILIFF

Coach Nick played soccer locally for Javanon and United from U9-U18. He graduated from Walden School where he also played soccer. Nick then went on to play at the collegiate level at the University of Tampa from 1998-2002, where he was a member of the National Championship team in 2001. Following college, he played in Sweden in the Division 2 from 2002-2004.

Nick has coached at United from 2006-2008, then was the goalkeeper coach at Javanon from 2009-2011. He began coaching for Mockingbird in 2021 with the 2013 Boys Black team and as a goalkeeper coach. He is currently obtaining his coaching license.

